SIGNING ON:

Riders and passengers to be signed on by 10.00am and it must be remembered that it is a condition of starting that you and your machine are fit to ride on public roads under UK law. Your Route Sheets and Numbers and Lunch Voucher (If pre-booked) will be supplied once you sign on. Please bring methods to fix the numbers to the front of your bike.

THE RUN:

Please have your machines ready for 10.30am for a prompt start.

Pre 1920's bikes will be asked to leave first in groups of two. Following this, the rest will be asked to move off in numerical order as the starter indicates.

Please ride with consideration to other road users and your fellow riders.

ROUTE:

This years we have a new route which passes through picturesque rural parts of Northamptonshire / Warwickshire the morning run is approximately 35 miles while the afternoon is around 42miles we also have the option to cut short the afternoon route which would cut the afternoon route to 22miles. There is no Fuel available this year if you require fuel, please bring it to the start and we will transport it to the lunch stop please have it clearly marked.

LUNCHES:

Lunch is at the Countryman at Staverton N11 6JH, tickets are to be handed in when collecting your food. Meals have been arranged for those who ordered them on the entry forms. Please note only Ham ploughman's lunches this year. If bringing your own lunch out of courtesy please consume outside in the car park area and not in the pub.

SIGN OFF:

On completing the run, please return your machine to the allocated parking area and both riders and passengers must sign off at the desk and collect their finishers badges.

BREAKDOWNS:

Back-up is provided by Rob, please call the number if you need help but please be patient. 07850 87 00 94 (or Al on 07966 184 149 if cannot reach Rob).

FINALLY:

Lunch tickets are NOT included with this form, please remember to pick them up on the day.

Thank you very much for your support of this event. We hope you will have a great day's riding.
